Digital Workshop I

Longing for hope and utopia: Turkey after the new regime and Covid-19 crisis

Thurs. 17.09.2020 // from 14.00h

In English

Through three short lectures, moderated discussions during the afternoon, an artistic offering, and a concert by prolific Turkish singer-songwriter Serdar Keskin at night, we will investigate the utopian drive that keeps up hopeful work. We will investigate what solidarity can — and has to — mean in these special times marked by both political upheaval and the hardening of authoritarian rule.
